Elements of the Novel

A novel is a type of literary work that is usually lengthy (generally between 100-500 pages) and uses all of the elements of storytelling: plot, climax, character, setting, point of view, and theme. They also usually include some type of conflict. It may involve several main characters and more than one setting. Complete the following chart below.

Plot

Characters

Climax

Setting

Title and Author

Conflict

Themes

Point of View