

Reading Recall Activity

Recall the two stories, “The Three-Century Woman” and “Charles”. Answer the following questions as they relate to each story. Use a separate sheet of paper to write your answers and turn them in when you are finished. Be sure to include the week #, day, date, and Reading Recall Activity at the top of your paper.

1. Look at the picture on page 243 of your e-book. What can you infer about the personality of the woman in the red hat on the basis of her appearance?
2. Reread lines 14 – 17 of page 242. What do you learn about the narrator here?
3. Reread lines 41-50 on page 244. The narrator characterizes the news people as “seriously pushy.” Which of their actions or words leads the narrator to this description?
4. Reread lines 51-59 on pg. 244. What do you learn about the narrator’s mother from how she talks to the reporters?
5. Consider Great-Grandma’s appearance and words. What is your first impression of her?
6. Watch the following link. It is actual footage. There are no words and only music playing because technology was minimal at the time. After watching the video, tell why you think it was important for Great-Grand Mother to talk about her memories.
7. Look at the image on page 250 of your e-book. Make an inference about what kind of people live in this neighborhood. What details in the photo and in your experience, support your inference?
8. Reread lines 7-19 on page 251. Describe how Laurie treats his parents. What do you learn about him from his words and actions.
9. Reread lines 112-121, and pay close attention to how Laurie describes Charles’s antics. How does Laurie feel about Charles?
10. Make an inference and tell who you believe is Charles.
